

Speaker Series Videos at the Fair

2019

	10:00 am - 10:30 am Dan Tomlinson ACS Battalion 10 & 17 Communications Unit Leader and retired Manhattan Beach police officer will present options for providing your own electrical power when the grid is down. Video.
	10:45 am - 11:15 am Dr. Julian Lozos Dr. Julian Lozos, seismologist at Cal State University Northridge, will explain how earthquake faults work, where that shaking comes from, and how earthquakes can affect our public infrastructure, including homes, hi-rises, above- and below-ground utilities. Video.
	11:30 am - 12:00 pm Chief Michel Moore Hear from our new Chief of Police about LAPD's disaster readiness and response plans "to protect and serve" during and after a major disaster. Remember you'll be on your own for several days or more. Video.
	12:15 pm - 12:45 pm Helen Chavez Assistant Director, Preparedness Division, L. A. County Office of Emergency Management will discuss the 2019 Great California ShakeOut and earthquake preparedness. Talk will be in Spanish. La charla será en español. (Due to operational requirements of OES, Ms. Chavez was unable to attend.)
	1:00 pm - 1:30 pm Diana Shepherd and William Daffer Diana Shepherd and William Daffer will tell us about these amazing animals and the rigors and training search dogs (K9) and their handlers endure. Did you know? Search dogs have specialties! Video.

2018

	10:00 am - 10:30 am Larry Andrews Larry, Emergency Management Program Manager for SoCalGas, will talk about how they prepare, plan, and respond to widespread emergencies and disasters, whether natural or man-made. Video.
	10:45 pm - 11:15 pm Ken Kondo/Margaret Vinci Ken Kondo, L. A. County Office of Emergency Management, and Margaret Vinci, Cal Tech, will discuss current earthquake science and preparedness, including the Early Earthquake Warning System and ShakeAlert updates. Video.
	11:30 pm - 12:00 pm Josh Rubenstein Los Angeles Police Department's Public Information Director to talk about LAPD's disaster readiness and response plans and procedures. Video.
	12:15 pm - 12:45 pm Helen Chavez Assistant Director, Preparedness Division, L. A. County Office of Emergency Management will discuss the upcoming 2018 Great California ShakeOut and earthquake preparedness. Talk will be in Spanish. La charla será en español. Video.
	1:00 am - 1:30 pm Dan Tomlinson ACS Battalion 10 Communications Coordinator and retired Manhattan Beach police officer will offer suggestions on how to survive an Active Threat (Active Shooter) situation. Video.

2017

	10:30 am - 11:00 am Frank Borden Retired LAFD Assistant Chief and “father” of Community Emergency Response Team, will tell you how CERT, first in nation, got started in Los Angeles and spread to the rest of our nation, and the world. Video.
	11:15 am - 11: 45 am Dr. Jill Barnes, Ph.D. Executive Emergency Strategist, Office of Emergency Operations, Division of District Operations, on how LAUSD schools prepare for and respond to emergencies and disasters. Video.
	12:00 pm - 12:30 pm Tanya Yarbrough Will guide you through a session on Pet Preparedness and how to get your pet(s) trained and ready for a quick evacuation. Video.
	12:45 pm - 1:15 pm Dan Tomlinson ACS Battalion 10 Communications Unit Leader, will demonstrate and explain how to use any two-way radio to communicate effectively, efficiently, and succinctly in a disaster or emergency situation. Video.
	1:30 pm - 2:00 pm Eric Boldt Warning Coordination Meteorologist at National Weather Service Los Angeles/Oxnard, will cover severe weather and how you can prepare for and deal with adverse weather conditions. Video.

2016

	10:30 am - 11:00 am MySafe:LA For Seniors (55 and over). Preparing for Fire and Life Safety, and Disasters. (Free Goodie Bag from MySafe:LA with Participation.) No video available.
	11:15 am - 11: 45 am Louise Masin Sattler Advocate for persons with Access and Functional Needs (AFN). Learn how first responders (you!) can best serve their needs in time of disaster. Video.
	12:00 pm - 12:30 pm Brian Tessier Lake Balboa Neighborhood Council EP Committee co-chair emeritus and two-time Emmy nominee, discussing how to create a personalized preparedness kit on the cheap. Video.
	12:45 pm - 1:15 pm Grayce Liu General Manager, Dept. of Neighborhood Empowerment, discussing how L.A.'s Neighborhood Councils help prepare their citizens for disaster awareness and response. Introducing Marissa Aho, City Resiliency Officer. Video.
	1:30 pm - 2:00 pm Erin Huey Long-time Red Cross First Aid and CPR/AED instructor-trainer and recently retired Gas Company employee, will show us how to help get our pets prepared before and safely care for them during and after a disaster. Video.

2015

	10:30 am - 11:00 am Capt. Stacy Gerlich Discussion of San Andreas movie, Personal Preparedness, Community Emergency Response Team (CERT), and the LAFD's new configuration. Video.
	11:15 am - 11:45 am Dr. Kate Hutton How Amateur (Ham) Radio's National Traffic System (NTS) Provides Communications During Disasters. Video.
	12:00 pm - 12:30 pm Dr. Jill Barnes How LAUSD Schools Prepare for and Respond to Emergencies and Disasters. Video.
	12:45 pm - 1:15 pm Mr. Tim Kneeland Staying Alive During Emergencies and Disasters. Video.
	1:30 pm - 2:00 pm MySafe:LA For Seniors (55 and over). Preparing for Fire Safety and Other Disasters. (Free Goodie Bag from MySafe:LA with Participation). Video.